THE MENSAGE.

An advance outline of the president's message to congress is given in our dispatches. It is firm in its tone but tolerant in spirit. The president wisely does not take sides with either the extreme views of the gold bugs or silver-

The men holding gold contracts are anxious for an absolute wingle gold standard. But that will be too expensive to the debtor class. The finance of the country cannot be founded on the luck of a miner's pick-axe. It must be more stable than luck of any sort whether it be luck in discovering silver and gold or anything else.

The message itself is anxiously awaited and will be read with great interest. The country stands upon the brink of a complete financial and industrial collapse and only wise action BANGROFT to the day. First-class can save it.

HINT TO SHIPPERS OF FOWLS.

Farmers or country merchants shipping fowls to Portland must take care not to crowd too many in the coops during hot weather. The society for the prevention of cruelty to animals Wednesday, took steps to arrest the ercrowding. At first the commission men were forbidden to take the fowls, and they were ordered sent back to the the shippers, but later it was decided be taken away and turned loose.

THE STATE REVENUES.

Cherry Valley, N. Y. Gazette: As matters stand today, the general feeling is that the crop of 1893 will be of an ex cellent quality but deficient in quantity. From nearly all sections in this State, the reports point to a yield considerably under that of 1892 which was a short crop. There is little doubt but that the per cent will be quite a falling off from one year ago.

Sacremento News: During the past four days there has been little doing in the way of contracting. The growerwho wish to make sure of their expenses for the season have contracted all they care to, while those who have hops for the future and think hops will soon go up to 30c, will not sell a pounc until they have watched the trend of the markets of the world for a few weeks, or at least until their crops are harvested. On Saturday last, however, there were some heavy contracts made for the Lillentbals, and it is said as high as 21 c per pound was paid.
